Registration for adult and children's classes at the People's Art Center, the school run by the Museum of Modern Art, has been extended an additional week. Applications will be accepted through September 30 for courses in painting, ceramics, jewelry-making and art orientation for adults, and for weekday art classes for children aged 3 through 18. Registrations are also being accepted for classes of parents and children (aged 4 and 5) who will work together exploring creative methods.

Classes meet once a week for a term of 15 sessions. Fees range from $27.50 to $32.50. The People's Art Center is at 681 Fifth Avenue, between 53 and 54 Streets. Application blanks may be obtained from the Education Department, Museum of Modern Art, 11 W. 53 Street.
