FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"ART AND GOVERNMENT IN GREAT BRITAIN"

SUBJECT OF MUSEUM LECTURE

"Art and Government in Great Britain" will be the subject of a talk by Philip B. James in the auditorium of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, on Thursday, November 9, at 8:30 p.m.

As Director of Art of the Arts Council of Great Britain, Mr. James organized all of the art and education activities for troops in Britain and overseas as well as for the Home Guard and bombed-out civilians during the last war.

Among the more than 400 exhibitions which he organized were the van Gogh, French Tapestries, and Treasures from Vienna, all of which were shown in this country.

Admission is 90 cents including tax. Tickets may be purchased at the Museum of Modern Art.

The program is being presented by the Junior Council of the Museum.
