No. 16

LATE REGISTRATION FOR CLASSES AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART, NY

Some openings remain in spring term classes starting Tuesday, February 4, at the People's Art Center of the Museum of Modern Art, 21 West 53 Street.

Not completely full are classes for children and young people 6 - 18, including Ceramics for children 9 - 12, and Puppet Making for children 8 - 10. There are no openings in joint parent-children classes.

While most adults' classes are filled, there are still openings in the following: Evenings - Beginning Painting, Mosaic Making, Jewelry Making, Pottery and Ceramic Sculpture, Photography - Criticism and Discussion; Daytime - Mosaic Making, Pottery and Ceramic Sculpture, and Glass as a Creative Medium.

Planned primarily for those who wish to enjoy art as a leisure-time activity but who do not want to study in a professional or specialized school, the People's Art Center, under the direction of Victor D'Amico, is nationally known for its methods of art education.

Reservations for classes may be made by calling JUDSON 2-5255.

For further information contact Elizabeth Shaw, Publicity Director, Museum of Modern Art, NY, Circle 5-8900.
