MUSEUM AUDITORIUM RE-OPENS WITH BEATRICE LILLIE COMEDY

The Museum of Modern Art auditorium, 11 West 53 Street, closed for alterations during the past three weeks, will re-open with On Approval, a comedy with Beatrice Lillie and Clive Brook. The 1944 film will be shown May 9 - 14, daily at 3 and 5:30.

Clive Brook, who produced, directed and adapted the film from the play by Frederick Lonsdale, at first attempted to treat seriously the theme of husbands and wives "on approval." But the idea seemed so dated that Mr. Brook moved the action back in time from the Twenties to the Edwardian era and created a hilarious burlesque.
