JAZZ IN THE GARDEN AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Jazz in the Garden, ten Thursday evening promenade concerts, will be held again this summer at The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, beginning June 17. The hour-long concerts start at 8:30. The series is sponsored jointly by the Museum and Down Beat magazine.

During the summer, the entire Museum will be open Thursday evenings until 10. The regular Museum admission, $1.00, admits visitors to galleries and to 8 p.m. film showings in the Auditorium; there is no charge for Museum members. Admission to jazz concerts in the garden is an additional 50 cents for all.

As in previous Jazz in the Garden concerts, 1960 through 1962, tickets will be placed on sale (in the Museum lobby only) on the Saturday preceding each performance. A few chairs are available on the garden terraces, but most of the audience stands or sits on the ground. Cushions may be rented for 25 cents. In case of rain, the concert will be canceled; tickets will be honored at the concert following. Other Museum activities continue as announced.

For Jazz in the Garden, Dan Morgenstern, New York editor of Down Beat, will be Chairman of a Program Committee consisting of David Himmelstein, editor of FM magazine, Charles Graham, a sound systems specialist, and Herbert Bronstein, series Director.

The Museum of Modern Art exhibitions throughout the summer will include Modern Architecture, U.S.A., a major Giacometti retrospective, and a photography show, Glamour Portraits.
