Works by the following artists and sculptors will be shown:-

Rudolf Belling, Charles Despiau, Wilhelm Lehmbruck, Aristede Maillol, Peter Flume, Georges Braque, Charles Burchfield, Paul Cezanne, Marc Chagall, Jean Charlot, Giorgio de Chirico, Charles Demuth, André Derain, Preston Dickinson, Raoul Dufy, Thomas Eakins, Fautrier, Jean Louis Forain, Paul Gauguin, Marcel Gromaire, George Overbury "Pop" Hart, Stefan Hirsch, Winslow Homer, Edward Hopper, Bernard Karfiol, Paul Klee, Walt Kuhn, Yasuo Kuniyoshi, Charles Lapique, Marie Laurencin, Fernand Leger, Jean Luceat, John Marin, Reginald Marsh, Henri Matisse, Kenneth Hayes Miller, Joan Miró, Georgia O'Keeffe, Jules Pascin, Marjorie Phillips, Pablo Ruiz Picasso, Georges Rouault, Albert Pinkham Ryder, Georges Seurat, John Sloan, Eugene Speicher, Maurice Stern, Paul Tchelichev, Maurice Utrillo, Vincent van Gogh, Max Weber.

The Exhibition will hang until some time in late September. It should prove very provocative and of great interest because of its comparative nature. It is especially hoped that students who find themselves in New York during the summer will avail themselves of the opportunity which this show offers. Of especial interest at the moment may be mentioned the statue of Max Schmeling by Rudolf Belling, which is among the permanent collection of the Museum of Modern Art.
