CBS NEWS DOCUMENTARY ON PICASSO TO BE SHOWN AT MUSEUM

In conjunction with its current exhibition of Picasso's work, The Museum of Modern Art has announced that the CBS News documentary "Picasso Is 90" will be shown in special daily film programs in the Museum auditorium throughout the month of March.

This intimate portrait of Picasso, which includes views of some 100 of the master's works, focuses on his personal life, political views and his creative output. The documentary was originally shown on the CBS Television Network on October 21, 1971, in celebration of the artist's 90th birthday.

The 51-minute film will be shown every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 4:00 p.m. from March 1 through March 31, with the exceptions of March 23 and March 29. Entrance to "Picasso Is 90" is on a first-come, first-served basis. Admission to the film is included in the regular Museum entrance fee.

CBS News Chief Foreign Correspondent Charles Collingwood was the reporter and writer of "Picasso Is 90." William McClure produced, directed and photographed the film and Burton Benjamin was executive producer. Sir Roland Penrose served as consultant for the project.
