CARL ROSENSTOCK RETURNS TO SUMMERGARDEN ON AUGUST 10 AND 11

Carl Rosenstock, a singer/songwriter, will return to Summergarden to perform at 8 pm on Friday, August 10 and Saturday, August 11. He will be accompanied by Richard Levine, lead guitarist, a former student at the School of Visual Arts, who met Carl when they were both driving cabs.

Carl was born in Albany, raised on Buddy Holly, comic books, and television; went to college, studied medieval Japanese history; came to New York, played clubs in the Village and colleges throughout the northeast while supplementing his income by working as a cab driver and short-order cook. Now living above an abandoned Yiddish theater, Carl spends his time writing songs, playing guitar, working on a novel and occasional poetry, and watching television. In the outside world he browses through record shops, bookstores, and a lot of bars.

Summergarden is Mobil Foundation's gift to New York. It enables The Museum of Modern Art to open its Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden without charge on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings from 6 to 11 pm, from June 1 through September 30. Entertainment scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights begins at 8 pm. Access to the garden is through the gates at 8 W. 54 Street. Light refreshments are usually available.

Next week's performer will be Jon Harvey, a mime.
