

The Museum of Modern Art

50th Anniversary

NO. 75

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

12/22/80

JACK LEMMON HONORED IN SALUTE BY THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

In a one-day marathon of five key films in his career, Jack Lemmon will be honored by the Museum of Modern Art with SALUTE TO AN ACTOR: JACK LEMMON on January 19, 1981.

The films cover a period of more than twenty-five years and show the range of Lemmon's talent as an accomplished and versatile actor in drama and comedy.

Jack Lemmon has received numerous awards for his distinguished performances in television and theater, as well as an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in "Mr. Roberts" in 1955, another for Best Actor in "Save The Tiger" in 1973, and many international awards and nominations for his work in film.

SALUTE TO AN ACTOR: JACK LEMMON is presented by the Department of Film of MoMA. Screenings will be held in the Roy and Niuta Titus Auditorium.

A schedule of the day's screenings is attached.

* * * * *

For further information, contact Alicia Springer, Film Press Representative, (212) 956-7289.

* * * * *

SALUTE TO AN ACTOR:

JACK LEMMON

Monday, January 19, 1981

- 11:30 IT SHOULD HAPPEN TO YOU. 1954. George Cukor. With Jack Lemmon, Judy Holliday, Peter Lawford. (Columbia Pictures) 81 minutes

- 1:15 SOME LIKE IT HOT. 1959. Billy Wilder. With Jack Lemmon, Marilyn Monroe, Tony Curtis, Joe E. Brown. (United Artists.) 120 minutes.

- 3:30 MISTER ROBERTS. 1955. John Ford, Mervyn LeRoy. With Jack Lemmon, Henry Fonda, James Cagney, William Powell. (Warner Bros.) 123 minutes.

- 6:00 THE APARTMENT. 1960. Billy Wilder. With Jack Lemmon, Shirley MacLaine, Fred MacMurray. (United Artists) 125 minutes.

- 8:30 THE CHINA SYNDROME. 1979. James Bridges. With Jack Lemmon, Jane Fonda, Michael Douglas. (Columbia Pictures) 122 minutes.