SPECIAL PROGRAM

Wednesday, February 25, 8 p.m.
An Evening with Pierre Boulez: Klee's Influence on a Musician

Mr. Boulez is currently director of the Institut de Recherche et de la Coordination Acoustique/Musique, a major musical research center housed in the Georges Pompidou Center, Paris. Considered one of the world's leading post-war composers, he has served as music director of the New York Philharmonic (1971-77), chief conductor of the BBC Symphony Orchestra (1971-75), and principal guest conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra (1969-72). This event is generously supported by a grant from Stan Gurell.

Tickets for the evening are $10, $8.50 Members, $7.50 students.

The exhibition will be open to ticket-holders to lectures from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., and to the Pierre Boulez program from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on the evening of these events. Tickets are available at the information desk or by sending a check and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Department of Education, The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York, NY 10019.
