SPRING SERIES OF SIGN-LANGUAGE INTERPRETED TALKS OFFERED AT THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Gallery talks in signed English on a variety of topics relating to twentieth-century art are given at The Museum of Modern Art every third Thursday evening of the month at 7:00 p.m. The spring series of sign-language interpreted talks commences on Thursday, March 16, on the subject of Andy Warhol's art, currently presented in the popular exhibition, ANDY WARHOL: A RETROSPECTIVE, a major survey of the artist's entire body of work.

Gallery talks also focus on the art of individual modern masters or on different periods in art history. The talks are included in the price of admission, which on Thursday evenings is on a "pay-what-you-wish" basis.

The spring schedule of sign-language interpreted gallery talks is as follows:

Thursday, March 16, Andy Warhol
Thursday, April 20, Henri Matisse
Thursday, May 18, Abstract Expressionism
Thursday, June 15, Pablo Picasso

Sign-language interpreted talks begin at the Education Center on the ground level of the Museum. This program of gallery talks is made possible by a grant from the General Electric Foundation. For additional information or to make reservations for group tours, call the Department of Education, 212/708-9795.
