FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ROSAMUND GILDER TO DISCUSS THEATRE IN LECTURE SERIES
ON FUTURE OF ARTS IN AMERICA AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Miss Rosamund Gilder, Associate Editor of "Theatre Arts" and noted authority on the theatre, will give a lecture on The Theatre, tonight (Wednesday, March 19, at 8 P.M.) at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street. This lecture is the second in a series entitled The Future of the Arts in American Life and Culture arranged by the Museum in association with the Progressive Education Association, to discuss the place of the arts, theatre, music and literature in the world today. At the close of each lecture specific problems involved will be discussed by a panel of educators under the chairmanship of Dr. Harold Rugg, Professor of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Miss Gilder is the author of many books on the theatre including "Enter the Actress," "A Theatre Library" and "John Gielgud's Hamlet." She has also lectured widely on the subject and has long been associated with "Theatre Arts" as an editor.

The remainder of the series is as follows:

March 26, 8 P.M. Music - Olin Downes

April 2, 8 P.M. Literature - John Peale Bishop

Tickets are fifty cents and will admit holders to the exhibition now at the Museum, Indian Art of the United States, from 6 to 8 P.M. on date of lecture.
