RECORDED TOUR OF FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT: ARCHITECT

An Acoustiguide audiotour of FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT: ARCHITECT, on view at The Museum of Modern Art from February 20 through May 10, 1994, is available as a guide to the exhibition. The forty-five minute tape is narrated by Eric Lloyd Wright, the architect's grandson, and includes commentary by Terence Riley, chief curator, Department of Architecture and Design, and organizer of the exhibition; Philip Johnson, architect; and Gwendolyn Wright, professor of architecture, Columbia University. The narrative provides informed and insightful commentary on the highlights of Wright's long career, illuminating his contributions to the architecture of this century.

The recorded tour is available in English, French, and Spanish. It may be rented for $4.00 ($3.50 members) with the purchase of an admission ticket or at the exhibition's entrance.
