Subject: MoMA Summer Music

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

We would like to give you an update about all of the special summer music programs happening at MoMA this summer:

Summergarden

Every summer, The Museum of Modern Art hosts the annual Summergarden musical program in the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden. The free concert series will take place every Sunday evening in July (5, 12, 19 and 26) where the Museum will once again collaborate with The Juilliard School and Jazz at Lincoln Center. The young virtuosi of the New Juilliard Ensemble will perform new chamber music that has never been heard in New York, by composers from all over the world writing in a vast range of styles. Jazz at Lincoln Center selects cutting-edge jazz artists, each of whose concerts will emphasize original works and include at least one world premiere.

Summergarden is free and seating is on a first come, first served basis. The Sculpture Garden opens for seating at 7:00 p.m., and the concerts will start at 8:00 p.m. and run approximately one hour to 90 minutes. After the performance is over, the Sculpture Garden closes at 10:00 p.m. In the event of rain, concerts will be held in The Agnes Gund Garden Lobby, and the Museum's Lobby entrance on 54 Street will open at 7:30 p.m.

MoMA Thursday Nights

Additionally MoMA Thursday Nights will also enrich the musical life of New York City this summer by presenting concert performances from an international and eclectic array of music presented every Thursday evening in July and August. The live music will be presented in the Sculpture Garden, weather permitting, in two series, MoMA Music: BRAZIL, held in July and MoMA Music: CHINA, held in August. Performances will be in two sets, at 5:30 and 7:00 p.m. In the event of rain, the Sculpture Garden will close and music will be presented in one set at 7:00 p.m. in the Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1 or 2. This series is free with Museum admission and coincides with MoMA's extended Thursday summer hours.

Below are links to the MoMA website with more information about these programs and we very much hope that you will be able to stop by and enjoy the music programs on offer this summer! As always, if there are any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us via email at momaneighbornews@moma.org or call 212-333-6576.
