Dear Friends and Neighbors,

We hope you have been enjoying this fine spring season, and that you'll be able to stop by soon to see the Henri Labrouste and Claes Oldenburg exhibitions now on view at MoMA. Many of you have also been observing the installation of Rain Room in the vacant lot to the west of the Museum; we look forward to its public opening on May 12.

With all of the activities taking place around the MoMA campus, we'd like to direct your attention to a summary of events and outdoor music programs scheduled throughout the summer. Please visit the MoMA Neighborhood website, where you can download the schedule.

Please let us know if you have any questions, and thanks for continuing to visit the MoMA Neighborhood website for new postings and updated Museum information.

Sincerely,

Diana Simpson and Eugenia Spektor

Subject: A Thank You to MoMA's Neighbors

June 4, 2013

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Hello, and please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Maggie Lyko and I am the new Director of Special Events at The Museum of Modern Art. I also oversee MoMA's Affiliate Programs, which include The Chairman's Council, Friends of Education, and The Junior Associates; so perhaps I have the good fortune to know some of you already!

As you might have observed recently, MoMA produced a number of complex programs and benefits in May 2013. Throughout the planning process, we worked diligently with our elected officials and area representatives to put steps in place that would minimize neighborhood disturbances. We recognize, however, that these events still had a significant impact on your daily lives.

So today, I am writing to all of you who work and live around the Museum's campus to simply say "Thank You" for your understanding and patience. Please know that we are always thinking about how to make our events and programming more considerate and convenient for all who work and reside here.

Working together, we are one great community.

With my best regards,

Maggie Lyko
Director, Special Events and Affiliate Programs
