would be very important to demonstrate a possibility of coordinating activity independent from art institutions, and organize an international strike of artists. This strike should represent a boycott of art system in a period of several months. Duration, exact date of beginning, and forms of boycott will be worked out on the completion of the list of enrolled artists and propositions. Please give notice of this to the artists you know. The dead-

Dear ARTIST,

Would you take part in an international strike of artists? As a protest against art system's unbroken repression of the artist and the alienation from the results of his practise, it would be very important to demonstrate a possibility of coordinating activity independent from art institutions, and organize an international strike of artists. This strike should represent a boycott of art system in a period of several months. Duration, exact date of beginning, and forms of boycott will be worked out on the completion of the list of enrolled artists and propositions. Please give notice of this to the artists you know. The deadline for applications/suggestions is 15.05.79.

Dear PAD!

This issue was published in an edition of 60.
40 of them were sent to the artists who answered to the circular letter of Goran Djordjevic; who himself got 10 copies.
Of the remaining 10 copies five stayed at the Museum (one for each of the four members, and one for reasons of documentation) while the others were sent to :
Braco Dimitrijevic/London, Peter Nadin/New York, Hermann Pitz/Berlin, Claude Rutault/Paris, Jürgen Wesseler/Bremerhaven.
In case you would like to answer for continuing the project, or just want to have some more informations on the Museum, please notice
the above address.

Looking forward to hear from you!

The Museum für (Sub-)Kultur
