THE MANHATTAN STORAGE
& WAREHOUSE CO.

AGREEMENT made and entered into between THE MANHATTAN STORAGE & WAREHOUSE CO., hereinafter described as the Lessor, and Paul Rosenberg & Co. hereinafter described as the Lessee,

Witnesseth:

That the Lessor has hereby leased to the Lessee and the Lessee does hereby hire and rent from the Lessor Rooms No. 8L5 & 8L7 in its warehouse, 52nd Street & Seventh Avenue New York City, at a monthly rental of $44.00 payable in advance.

IT IS AGREED as follows:

The said Lessee shall have exclusive control of the room and custody of its contents, and of the keys thereof, and is entitled to access at all reasonable times when the warehouse is open.

No perishable or hazardous goods shall be placed in the said room by the Lessee, and for a breach thereof this lease shall forthwith terminate at the option of the Lessor, and the Lessee shall be responsible for all damages sustained by the Lessor thereby.

In consideration of the rental aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Lessor to exercise proper diligence in preventing access to said room by unauthorized persons, but beyond the exercise of such due diligence the Lessor assumes no responsibility with reference to the contents of the said room. Goods not placed in the room shall become subject to warehouse charges and rules while remaining in the custody of the Lessor. Every access by the Lessee must be in the presence of an employee of the Lessor and the usual warehouse charge for such access paid.

In the event of the non-payment of the rental, as the same becomes due, it is expressly agreed that access to the said room may be refused to the Lessee until such arrears are paid in full. All property remaining in such room shall be subject to a warehouseman's lien for the amount of rent in arrears and such lien of the lessor may be enforced in the same manner as is provided by the law relating to warehousemen and it is expressly agreed that the Company may have access to said room by breaking into the same or otherwise for the purpose of enforcing its lien against the contents thereof. The Company may, if it see fit, instead of immediately enforcing its warehousemen's lien, store said goods at the expense of the tenant who shall become liable for the usual storage charges and, under such circumstances, the Company's warehouseman's lien shall include such additional storage charges as may accrue.

In consideration of the rental reserved in the foregoing contract, after being given an opportunity by the payment of a higher rental to avoid the limitation of liability on the part of the Lessee, the liability of the Lessor in handling any property contained in the rented room in the warehouse, or to or from any room or rooms rented by the Lessee, in case of loss or damage for any cause for which it may be liable, is limited to fifty dollars for each piece or package and contents thereof, upon which value the rate for such service is based, opportunity having been given to the Lessee to pay a higher rate for liability without limitation as to value.

On termination of this lease, the Lessee shall surrender the keys to the Lessor. This lease may be terminated by either contracting party by giving a thirty days' notice.

Any dispute or claim arising out of or for the breach of this agreement shall be settled by arbitration under the Arbitration Law of the State of New York and under the rules of the American Arbitration Association, provided, however, that upon any such arbitration the arbitrator may not vary, modify or disregard any of the foregoing provisions.

Constable 68
Sandham 42

Paul Rosenberg, Esq.
Madison Hotel
15 East 58th Street
New York City

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

I have had a chance to talk this morning with Mr. Constable about the Cezannes which you showed to Mrs. Cunningham and me yesterday. The two pictures which interest us particularly are the large Still Life, Venturi no. 497, and the large landscape of the Houses in Provence, Venturi, no. 436. We should like to have the opportunity to consider these, and if it were possible, to have them sent up here. On the other hand at the present time there are a number of other important matters under consideration, and both Mr. Constable and I feel that it would be unwise to have our Trustees consider the Cezannes before the first of the year. Possibly you may not be taking these pictures with you to California, and in this case you might agree to send them here to the Museum for our consideration. I did, however, wish to make it clear that we should be unable to come to any decision about them until after the first of the year.

Would you also let me know what is the lowest Museum price that you can quote on these two pictures? I have a note on one of them, but I am afraid it may be out of date.

Mrs. Cunningham and I enjoyed so much seeing you yesterday and the wonderful group of things which you showed us. It was very exciting.

With kind regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Charles L. Cunningham

Chère Madame,

Dans ma lettre du 28 Avril je vous ai demandé de me procurer de votre compagnie d'assurances un renoncement au recours qu'ils auraient contre moi au cas où il arriverait un accident à votre tableau.

Ainsi que j'ai eu le plaisir de vous le dire je ne tiens pas à être responsable d'un tableau dont je m'occupe uniquement par risque amical et cette rémission m'est donc absolument nécessaire. Je vous serai donc bien vivement reconnaissant de me la faire parvenir le plus vite possible.

Espérant avoir bientôt le plaisir de vous voir je vous prie de croire, chère Madame, à mes sentiments les meilleurs.

Cher Monsieur Matisse,

Voilà un temps infini que je n'ai reçu de vos nouvelles et je veux les espérer bonnes. J'ai appris, indirectement, que vous continuez à devenir de plus en plus jeune et que vos dernières œuvres sont magnifiques. Ah! combien j'aimerais les voir. Ne vous serait-il pas possible de m'en envoyer des photographies? Cela me remplirait d'aise, je vous assure.

Vous avez sans doute appris par votre fils que j'ai ouvert une grande galerie à New York. Je me suis installé dans l'ancienne galerie Dudensing qui a déménagé et il m'est maintenant possible de déployer mes activités dans le même sens qu'avant et ainsi soutenir et défendre l'Art Français.

Mais ce qui m'importe le plus serait d'avoir de vos nouvelles, de savoir comment vous allez et recevoir de vous ces délicieuses lettres qui me remplissent d'aise et me font tellement plaisir.

Espérant recevoir bientôt une lettre de vous croyez moi, cher Monsieur Matisse, avec mes meilleures amitiés, votre bien affectueusement,

Mon cher Monsieur Matisse et cher grand ami,

Inutile de vous dire combien j'ai été ravi de recevoir de vos nouvelles et de les savoir si bonnes; également d'apprendre que vous continuez à créer et produire des œuvres qui feront la joie de tous vos admirateurs.

Certes il circule un tas de bobards, aussi bien ici qu'en France et les nouvelles que je reçois sont tellement contradictoires qu'elles ne m'apprennent absolument rien. Il paraît que ma maison à Paris est occupée et que ma bibliothèque et mes clichés photographiques ont été détruits. Je crois cette nouvelle exacte ainsi que celle m'annonçant que les tableaux en garde chez mon chauffeur ont été pris par les autorités occupantes.

Quant à ma santé, rassurez-vous mon cher ami: elle est excellente. Oui, j'ai souffert à un moment donné d'un ulcère au duodénum, provoqué par les divers événements et beaucoup d'autres raisons, mais après des soins énergiques je me suis rétabli complètement à tel point que je mange n'importe quoi, bois n'importe quoi, de l'alcool si besoin en est. Ces bobards ont circulé parce que j'ai écrit à un de mes frères qui est à Cannes que j'avais un ulcère qui a été transformé dans leur esprit par un cancer. D'autres l'ont appris et avec leurs bavardages ont répandu partout que j'étais mortellement atteint. Une preuve que je vais bien c'est que j'ai décidé de m'installer et d'ouvrir une maison afin que mon nom ne meure pas et de continuer ainsi à faire vivre l'art. L'emplacement que j'ai choisi est admirablement bien situé avec une galerie où je pourrai me manifester. Evidemment ce sont de gros soucis que je me colle; de gros frais que je m'occasionne mais je me dois à la cause et à la cause entière. L'esprit et la culture française ne doivent pas mourir et si ils ne peuvent se montrer en France en ce moment pour telle ou telle raison, il m'appartient à moi ayant toute liberté d'agir de ramasser les débris de ce flambeau et d'exhalter jusqu'au bout de mes forces ce qui nous tient tant à cœur.

Ceci est donc une preuve pour vous que ma santé physique et mon esprit n'ont pas changés.

Madame Nelson Rockefeller est absente pour l'été et je lui ai communiqué un extrait de votre lettre se rapportant à votre tableau. Je la verrai en Septembre ou Octobre et je lui dirai verbalement.

Je crois qu'il est inutile de vous dire combien je me réjouis de savoir que vous reprenez vos forces et des nouvelles que vous me donnez. Je sais que vous devez être soigné magnifiquement et je voudrez pouvoir remercier les gens qui agissent ainsi envers vous. Vos lettres sont pour moi comme un délicieux vent de France qui me parvient, aussi cher ami, lorsque vous n'aurez rien à faire, sans vous occasionner un surplus de travail ou une perte de repos, écrivez moi car vos lettres me font du bien. Que ne puis-je voir vos tableaux, que ne puis-je continuer nos relations et vous dire tout le dévouement et l'affection que j'ai pour vous. Vous avez été pour moi le couronnement de ma carrière artistique et un des plus beaux fleurons de ma couronne; aussi vous me manquez énormément car toutes vos toiles sont restées en France.

Mon cher ami, continuez à bien vous porter, continuez à vous ménager; ne pensez qu'à cela et à votre art et recevez de votre ami le plus dévoué et le plus affectueux ses pensées les plus sincères et les meilleures.

Tout cela ce n'est rien et j'endurerais même plus si je savais avoir bientôt la joie d'avoir de vous revoir ainsi que vos compatriotes.

La vie ici pour nous est très monotone. Nous sortons très peu et les affaires ne sont pas même une distraction pour moi car elles sont mauvaises mais l'enthousiasme ici est très grand et la France est très aimée. Espérons, espérons, du reste c'est tout ce que nous pouvons faire.

Mon cher et grand ami,

Si je n'avais pas de nouvelles par Pierre je ne saurais pas du tout comment vous allez. Il paraît que vous avez une convalescence merveilleuse et que vous avez retrouvé une seconde jeunesse. Du reste mon expression est fausse car vous avez toujours été jeune et dans vos tableaux que j'ai du, hélas! laisser en France, vous étiez de plus en plus jeune. Toutefois vous ne savez pas combien un mot de vous me ferait plaisir. J'ai tellement d'affection et une profonde amitié pour vous ajoutées à la plus grande admiration que des nouvelles directes de vous me sembleraient comme un rayon de soleil. Je ne veux pas vous ennuyer à ce sujet; je sais à l'avance quel est votre état d'esprit. Je sais que vous devez avoir beaucoup de soucis, beaucoup de préoccupations et que vous devez vous étourdir dans votre travail.

Quant à moi depuis deux mois j'ai été très souffrant ayant eu des ulcères au duodénum compliqués d'une artérite dans la jambe, celle-ci m'empêchant de marcher et me faisant souffrir. Quoique j'en doute je vais faire quelque chose à ce sujet. Je crois que les Etats-Unis interviendreraient au cas où cette nouvelle serait exacte.

Léger, Kissling, Masson et Auzenfant sont ici ce qui amène une atmosphère très française. De Léonce j'ai appris qu'il était souffrant et qu'il avait été obligé de se retirer des affaires, pas de bon gré naturellement. Triste époque!

Mr W. G. CONSTABLE
Curator of Paintings
MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS
BOSTON, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr Constable,

I am in receipt of your letter of October 9th and appreciate what you tell me. However, I want you to know that as far as I am concerned I have nothing to do whatsoever with the business end of the Renoir Exhibition. As I already told you I am only their artistic adviser and have in no way taken care of the correspondence. Neither Duveen Brothers nor I have had any share of the business side.

However, the committee is not completely to blame for the vagueness of some of its requests as the Exposition had to be postponed on several occasions due to circumstances beyond our control. And then again, they were expecting replies for some very important pictures which were only received quite recently.

From what I have heard I understand that the Committee is ready to insure the paintings which their owners are prepared so generously to lend for this magnificent cause. Please do not forget that the Free French Relief Committee is doing everything in its power to make the show a tremendous success but unfortunately they do not always conduct business matters in the same way as Duveen or myself would do. Therefore, dear Mr Constable, may I ask you to be kind enough to explain all this to the owners so that they will be willing to help us as you have so generously done yourself. If you think that my guarantee for the safeguarding of the pictures is sufficient I am quite willing to take all the responsibility.

I would hate to think that this manifestation which is going to glorify one of the greatest artists is likely to create an unfortunate misunderstanding towards the organisers of the exhibition and that some would be badly prejudiced against them. This must not be so. If, for my part, I have not looked into the matter as carefully as I should have done, please excuse me. I think I told you verbally that it is impossible for me to mix myself in this affair and consequently you can see that I have no moral or financial interest to achieve. I wish to remain anonymous and act accordingly.

With best thanks for your kind reception, believe me,

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

I thought you ought to know that whoever is handling the business side of the Renoir Exhibition is doing it in a somewhat unwise and unbusiness-like way. In the case of at least one owner in Boston the vagueness with which the request for a loan was made and the lack of precision in giving definite information has definitely created a prejudice which may prevent the loan of the picture required. In the interests of the exhibition I should like to suggest that when a request is made it should be made in the same way as in the case of a museum, bringing out exactly when the picture will be required, who will be responsible for the transportation, where and in what conditions the picture will be hung, and so on. In the case of at least one potential lender none of these facts seem to have been made really clear.

Dear Miss Sardi,

Over the phone this morning I forgot to mention the fact that the four unframed paintings by Braque which we loaned you for exhibition purposes do not belong to us but to Mr Georges Braque himself and that is why they are not for sale.

Mr Paul Rosenberg has received authorisation from the Federal Reserve Bank to take charge of them and keep them in custody for Mr Braque. On the other hand he believes these four paintings are the only ones that the artist has left of this period and would probably not be willing to sell them. As you know, Georges Braque is at present in Paris where it is impossible for us to contact him directly, although we have made several attempts to that effect. Mr Rosenberg want you to know that if there were any possibility whatsoever of finding out if the artist were willing to sell his paintings he would gladly do so, but unfortunately from our past experience this as proved impossible.

We do hope this will not inconvenience you to a too great extent and beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr Plimpton,

You have been requested by the Committee of the Centennial Exhibition of Rencir to loan the picture you have in your institute by this great master for the show which will be held at Duveen Brothers in New York at the end of October. It would be a great pleasure for me to see this painting included in the show and thus have all periods represented.

As you know, it is impossible for France under present circumstances to celebrate and glorify one of her most illustrious children and it is indeed a marvelous thing that we should be able to have this exhibition take place in the United States.

I would be most grateful and thankful to you if you could help us in this matter and join your name to those who have already consented to the loan of their pictures.

Thanking you in advance for everything you will be able to do and with best remembrances, believe me,

Dear Mr Flimpton,

I was delighted to receive your telegram and to have your kind collaboration for the Centennial Exhibition of Renoir which, as you know, will be held at Duveen Brothers.

Naturally, all the expenses will be incurred by us and you only have to let us know as soon as possible what insurance you wish placed and also all the data. Kindly forward this information to Duveen Brothers, Inc. 720 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

It has been very gratifying for us to find such kind cooperation from practically every American museum and we are much indebted to them all, you included of course. The Free French Committee will give you confirmation of this letter as, personally, I am nothing but the artistic adviser.

Thanking you once more for your kindness and hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you very soon, believe me,

Dear Mr Plimpton,

Thanks for your quick and kind reply. I am sorry that you do not often come to New York as I should have been very pleased to see you.

I possess masterpieces by every artist with the exception of Seurat from Ingres up to now:- Ingres, Corot, Daumier, Courbet, Manet, Monet, Pissarro, Renoir, Van Gogh, Lautrec and so on as well as Picasso, Matisse and Braque.

At your request I am sending you a photo of the stupendous picture by Ingres which I chose among two of this lady. The second one was bought by the National Gallery in London. This painting has been reproduced in every book and is the last one available. Its price for a museum is $37,500.00.

Should you be interested in any other artist I will only be too glad to send you photographic reproductions but I will have to ask you to return them as soon as possible as I am very short of them.

Will you be in Minneapolis all summer? It is quite possible that I shall drive through there and I shall indeed be very glad to pay you a visit.

Mon cher Monsieur Matta,

Je suis très content d'avoir reçu de vos bonnes nouvelles et votre lettre m'a très amusée.

Malgré tous mes efforts et toute la conviction que je mets à placer votre toile, jusqu'à présent je n'ai pas pu. Vous connaissez l'apathie du public pour tout ce qui est nouveau et original. Ne vous en plaignez pas car si vous étiez reconnu et adulé à votre âge c'est que vous n'auriez aucun talent. Laissez le temps s'écouler. La vérité et la sincérité finissent toujours par percer. De plus, le moment est très mal choisi, mais à la rentrée nous tacherons de faire couler une source qui aura comme aboutissement votre poche.

Je dois bientôt partir moi même mais je n'ai pas encore trouvé l'endroit. Vous avez bien fait de fuir la chaleur de New York. Elle est torride.

J'ai vu André Breton et Masson auxquels j'ai parlé de vous. Ils vous estiment; que cela soit une grande satisfaction pour vous. Ecrivez-moi de temps en temps quand vous en aurez le loisir et recevez mes bien sincères amitiés.

Bien à vous,

Cher Monsieur Mettler,

Cette lettre a pour but de vous demander si vous consentiriez à vendre, payable en dollars, votre tableau par Lautrec "La Loge". J'aurai peut-être un client ici qui serait disposé à l'acquérir si le prix n'est pas trop élevé.

En attendant votre réponse et en espérant que vous êtes en bonne santé, veuillez croire, cher Monsieur, en mes sentiments les meilleurs.

Sehr geehrter Herr Rosenberg, wie Sie aus beiliegender Copie ersehen hat sich die Renoir-Sache gelöst.

Mr. Henschel sagt er hätte das Bild, es hing in der Mitte meiner Bilder, nicht
gesehen, Salz hat mir seine, Henschels, Meinung falsch berichtet, weil er, wie er
sagt, nicht genug Englisch versteht.

Ich würde Ihnen gerne die Bilder

Dem Herrn in Baltimore habe ich diese

Sehr geehrter Herr Rosenberg,

ich sah bei Ihnen in Paris die Madame Stumpf (vielleicht ist der Name nicht richtig, eine Frau und Kind in einer Landschaft, ein grösseres Bild,) von Corot. Haben Sie vielleicht das Bild hier? Es käme auch eine reine Landschaft, wie man sie häufig sieht mit Bäumen in Frage, in der Art wie mehrere in einem Flur der Frick-Galerie hängen. Falls Sie so etwas haben, bitte ich mir umgehend Photos mit Preisen und Grösse zu senden. Bitte senden Sie Photos ohne Ihre Firma.

Mr. Paul Rosenberg,
Madison Hotel,
New York City.

Mr. dear Mr. Rosenberg:-

Am most anxious to find a painting for my living room to take the place of a Bonnat which I find is too dominant; all of the pictures in this room are very quiet.

Would you be willing to send me approval the Bracque, gray & yellow lemon and 2 figs in dish price $2500²; Picasso black shadow on rose couch $4500², and Picasso over mantel, black blue with yellow vase $3200²?

The Picasso that I would like most is one between 1914 & 1916, very abstract and very quiet, and not any larger than the ones above mentioned.

Will you let me know as soon as possible if you can send them, I do not need to buy them longer than 3 or 4 days.

My kindest regards to you and
Mr. Helft.

most sincerely,

Beth Mc. L. Maitland.

DEPARTMENT OF PAINTINGS

January 10, 1941

Paul Rosenberg, Esq.
The Madison
Madison Avenue at 58th Street
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

I communicated to my Trustees what you said to me concerning the Cézanne "Still Life" and the reduction in price to $60,000; and they considered the whole question of its acquisition very carefully at a meeting yesterday. After much doubt and hesitation they finally decided that they could not, as things are at present, take any action with regard to the picture. This, of course, is no reflection on the picture itself, which the Trustees naturally regard as of the highest quality. The simple reason is that the Museum at this time has very heavy commitments in some of the other departments and the Trustees felt that they could not make such a necessarily expensive purchase, especially as in the Department of Paintings itself there is a possibility of certain negotiations coming to a head which may prove a considerable drain on the Department's own funds. Needless to say we all regret having had to make this decision, but I should like you to know how very much we appreciated the opportunity of studying the pictures and of considering them for acquisition; and I know that I am speaking on behalf of the Trustees when I join their thanks to my own.

I am asking the Registrar, who is responsible for such matters, to arrange to have the pictures sent back to you very shortly.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Moser,

The picture you refer to has remained in France. However, I have here many pictures by Corot, amongst them a very important and celebrated one of the Frick-Gallery kind measuring 65 cm x 85 cm. Unfortunately I do not possess any photos of it. Next to that one I also have several very fine paintings, smaller and representing landscapes, views of towns. I have also a very important one, long and narrow measuring about 1 m 75 x 1 m but I have no photos of it either. Anyway they are all of a very fine quality.

If you come to New York I shall indeed be glad to show them to you.

Sehr geehrter Herr Rosenberg,
ich danke Ihnen für
für das Bild. In kurzer Zeit wird er in New York sein und das Bild sehen. Ich hatte, nachdem Sie mir die Katalognummer nannten, mir den Katalog besorgt und meinem Bekannten das Bild gezeigt. Es könnte eine Schwierigkeit entstehen dadurch, dass ich Ihren ersten Preis von 18.000 mit einem geringen Zuschlag für mich weiter gegeben habe. Ich hätte es nicht richtig gefunden den Preis sofort als ich sein Interesse merkte, zu erhöhen. Ich heffe man würde sich, falls es Ernst würde, darüber einigen können.

Wir bedauern sehr, dass Sie sich nicht wohl fühlen, hoffen aber dass dieses herrliche Wetter im Verein mit den guten Kriegsnachrichten Ihren
Gesundheitszustand günstig beeinflussen wird.

Ich habe das Gefühl ich müsste mich bei
Ihnen entschuldigen, dass ich Ihnen in der Ihnen sicher verhassten Sprache schreibe, fürchte jedoch mein Englisch würde Ihnen jetzt noch schwer verständlich sein: Ich bin bestrebt, das so bald als möglich zu ändern.

Mr. Henschel,
c/o Messrs. Kneeler
14 East 57th Street N.Y.C.

Dear Mr. Henschel:

With further reference to the affaire of my paintings of Renoir I have to state:

You knew that two of my Renoirs have been sold by Messrs. Durand-Ruel and are now my property.

You have visited these paintings in Baltimore without my special permission. Afterwards you have declared to Mr. Salz, he reportes this to me, that these paintings are falsified.

When I heard this, I went in touch with messrs. Durand-Ruel and the Manager of Messrs. Durand-Ruel, Mr. Elfers, showed you and Mr. Salz one of these paintings which you declared false, and it was easy on hand of documents to prove the authenticity of all the paintings coming from Messrs. Durand-Ruel.

Thereupon you stated you have not seen the painting before and Mr. Salz assured to have misunderstood your statement an account of his poor knowledge of the English language.

I emphasize these true facts for my own reputation.

There is no disputing taste and the fact you don't like my Renoirs is a matter for itself. The greatest part of the paintings you bought for the Epstein Collection I don't like either. The charm collecting paintings lies in the different kinds of taste. Don't you think so?

It is my intention to do some business with Mr. Davidson, that is why I don't make too much fuss about the fact that besides requesting Mr. Davidson (and there are some witnesses present) not to show my collection to anyone without my presence and permit, he failed in this matter.

Our common acquaintance from Baltimore bought some time ago a painting by Wynants for 1000 $. Mr. X. told me that Mr. Davidson offered $ 4000 for this Wynants, for he says he knows an amateur who is interested in it.

I am in possession of a magnificent Wynants. I would like to sell it for 1500 $ or less. Of course the mediator of a business like this gets the usual commission.

You see, in this case, the difference of taste may have some advantage.

To avoid other misunderstandings and gossip about my paintings, I forward copies of this letter to
Mr. X. in Baltimore

Dear Mr Barr,

As you have been informed, the Centennial Exhibition of Renoir is going to be held at Duveen Brothers and will open on the 7th of November.

We were fortunate enough to secure, after many difficulties, the most famous "Déjeuner des Canotiers à Bougival" from the Duncan Phillips Memorial Collection. However, Mr Phillips is letting us have it on condition that I lend him my painting by Picasso "The Three Musicians". Therefore, I would be much obliged if you would be kind enough to release this picture for the duration of the Renoir show and thus enable us to have this most stupendous Renoir which is indispensable for our manifestation. Naturally "The Three Musicians" will be returned to you immediately afterwards.

I do hope this will not prove of too great an inconvenience and I am sure you understand the whole situation. I will indeed appreciate deeply your kind cooperation in authorising me to withdraw temporarily this picture.

Hoping to receive by telephone or otherwise your kind reply and thanking you in advance for everything you will be able to do in this matter, believe me dear Mr Barr,

I am writing to you on behalf of our Trustees to express our very great appreciation of your generosity in lending us your Picasso paintings for the Masterpieces of Picasso exhibition now being shown on the ground floor of the Museum. I am sorry that we did not have more space for this show, but it may be possible to amplify it later, when we may be able to take over more of the space now devoted to the National Defense posters.

As you see, we have re-hung some of the pictures in accordance with your suggestions, and we shall doubtless make further changes presently. I want you to know that we are all deeply appreciative of your many kindnesses.

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

Enclosed is a receipt for the seven Picasso paintings which we are holding here. When these paintings are not on exhibition they will be stored in the Museum and given the same care that we give our collections, but we cannot maintain insurance on them.

When they are exhibited they will be covered by our usual insurance for fine arts which covers from wall to wall against each and every risk except war and confiscation. These arrangements have already been made with many of our lenders including Mrs. Meric Gally, and several European collectors and museums.

We shall appreciate your letting us know as soon as possible if you agree with these arrangements.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

June 4th, 1941

Mr Alfred H. BARR, Jr.,
Director,
THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART,
11 West 53rd Street,
New York City, N. Y.

Dear Mr Barr,

The picture "La Nuit" by Van Gogh which I had the pleasure to send you costs me exactly, including the commission to Mr De La Faille, $35,500.00. Please note that this information is confidential. I am willing to take in payment "Le Portrait de Mr Choquet" by Cézanne, "Still Life With a Bottle" also by Cézanne and "Miss May Belfort" by Toulouse-Lautrec.

It gives me great pleasure to think that this sumptuous picture, which is unique in the work of Van Gogh, shall perhaps enrich the collection of the Museum of Modern art.

I had lunch yesterday with André MASSON who gave me some very interesting news about France.

Dear Mr Barr,

I have just returned from a trip and find your letter of May 19th. That is the reason why I have not yet answered it.

I do not recall having said to Miss DULLEY that the picture could be restored as I am not entitled to give such an order without previously obtaining authorization from the owner. One thing is certain and that is if a painting sustains an accident the owner should immediately be advised of it in order that he can put in a claim from the insurance company. As the painting now stands it will be very difficult for the insurance company to realize exactly what the damage was. I am sure you will be able to understand the difficulty of my position in this case. I really do not know if Mr KANN will accept the fact that his painting has suffered an accident and he may claim the total value of the insurance price especially as he is now in England and cannot see for himself the damage done to his picture. I am very sorry to be in between you two. You know that I am not acting for myself and I do hope you will understand this and arrange this matter to Mr KANN's complete satisfaction. Even if the damage is scarcely perceptible it does not mean that it has not occurred.

Mr RICH has just informed me that the "Still Life With a Bottle of Wine" by Picasso is going to be returned to you. I should very much like to know when my paintings will be on your walls as I am anxious to come over and see them.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

This is to confirm our acceptance of the proposal made in your letter of June 4th, namely that you would accept in payment for the van Gogh La Nuit three works from our collection: Cézanne's Portrait of Chocquet, Still Life with a Bottle, and Toulouse-Lautrec's May Belfort.

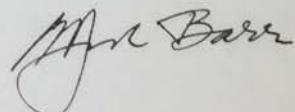

I brought your proposal before our Acquisitions Committee which has approved the exchange.

You may collect the three paintings at any time, letting us know by telephone one half hour beforehand.

May we have your confirmation of this exchange? We shall not announce the van Gogh in the near future, so that we will appreciate your keeping the exchange confidential.

May I say that our Committee is most happy to have added to our collection so distinguished a picture as the van Gogh?

Dear Mr Barr,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 16th referring to the trade agreement we made concerning "La Nuit" by Van Gogh.

I hereby wish to confirm that I accept in payment for this picture three works from your collection: "Portrait of Choquet" and "Still Life With a Bottle" by Cézanne together with "May Belfort" by Toulouse-Lautrec. These paintings were delivered to me today.

At your request I will not mention the exchange and will keep it confidential.

I am indeed glad that your Museum has now in its possession this most marvelous picture which will add greatly to your already important collection.

Dear Mr Barr,

I have just learned that you have given the picture belonging to Mr KANN to be relined. I want to call your attention to the fact that this cannot be done without Mr KANN's authorization and without him receiving first the indemnity to which he is entitled for the accident incurred by his painting. I have in hand your letter of April 26th wherein you state that you understand that I have given permission to have the painting repaired. You will note that in my answer to this letter I said that I thought it might be advisable to first make him an offer before informing him of the damage. You have not as yet given me an answer therefore I would appreciate, as Mr KANN's representative, that you give orders for the picture not to be relined and wait for instructions and acknowledgement of the owner.

I have not yet written to him about it and I would very much like to talk this matter over with you beforehand. Please remember that this painting was entrusted to my care and that I am responsible towards Mr KANN for anything that may happen to it. Mr KANN is an English citizen and I feel that I cannot hide from him the fact that his picture has suffered a serious accident. I hope you will understand my position and that you will let me know what you have decided on the subject.

With best personal regards, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

I have received your letter of May 15th and regret to inform you that Mr. Kann's picture has already been repaired.

We supposed that in making this repair we were acting with your knowledge and approval. When you came to inspect the picture Miss Dudley, our Registrar, tells me that she asked you whether we should proceed to have it repaired and that you agreed to this. This understanding I confirmed in my letter of April 26th, as follows: "I understand that you have given permission to have the painting repaired." In your reply of April 28th to this letter you made no reference to the repair of the picture, but suggested merely that we "make him an offer before informing him of the damage incurred by his painting." Had you specifically suggested that we should not have the picture repaired we would, of course, not have done so.

Because the picture has been at the restorer's it is ~~not~~ impossible to show it to our Committee. I hope to do so shortly, but cannot be at all certain that they will be able to act on it.

If you wish to inform Mr. Kann of the damage, let me say that it consisted of a scratch and dent about six inches long near the lower right hand corner of the canvas. There were two small holes at one end of the scratch and the injury was confined to flat areas of painting, rather than to modelled areas.

We are glad to keep the Harlequin, si tu veux, adding it to the six other paintings which we already have.

I am most unhappy about the damage done to Mr. Kann's picture. It was, in fact, the only picture which received any but very minor injuries during the whole two years' tour. I understand that you have given permission to have the painting repaired.

I hope to let you know shortly about our interest in the picture, though the price of £2,000 seems to us very high. I take it from your letter you would prefer that we make some kind of offer.

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

I can't thank you enough for your generous permission to keep your pictures in the Picasso exhibition for its showings in Minneapolis and Pittsburgh. We realize that we are really depriving you but you must understand that we would not have done so if we had not made commitments before your arrival in this country - commitments which you yourself confirmed in September when we asked you about the tour. Had we not been under this definite obligation to the museums in Minneapolis and Pittsburgh we should not have questioned your wish to withdraw your loans.

Of course we shall follow your request not to make any more engagements after the close of the exhibition in Pittsburgh. We sympathize with your desire to rebuild the atmosphere in which you lived for so long in Paris.

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

Miss Courter tells me that you wish to withdraw your painting "The Actor" by Picasso from the circulating exhibition. She has arranged to have it returned to the Museum.

I believe you know that all of your paintings in the United States are under our bond since no duty was paid on the frames. Therefore, any painting withdrawn from our custody must first be reported to the United States Customs and can not be released until the duty due on the frame has been paid.

We have just written the Collector of Customs about "The Actor" and hope we will be able to release it soon. Shall we send the bill for duty to you?

ELODIE COURTER
DIRECTOR OF CIRCULATING EXHIBITIONS

October 29, 1940

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

Mr. Barr has told me that you would like to have a copy of the Picasso itinerary.
The dates of the present schedule are as follows:

1940	Sept. 28 to Oct. 27	Cincinnati Art Museum, Cincinnati, Ohio
	Nov. 7 to Dec. 8	Cleveland Museum of Art, Cleveland, Ohio
	Dec. 20 to Jan. 17	Arts & Crafts Club, New Orleans, La. Mr Sonnleitner
1941	Feb. 1 to Mar. 1	The Grand Rapids Art Gallery, Grand Rapids, Mich.
	Mar. 15 to Apr. 13	Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Pa.
	Apr. 23 to May 21	Open

Before making final arrangements with the Museum in Minneapolis for the last period on the itinerary which I have indicated is open, we want to check the space available for the exhibition. They are very anxious to have the show and are not sure that it is possible for them to exhibit the pictures in the gallery which is available. I think the period probably will be confirmed which means that the loans will be back in New York around the first of June.

We have asked the Cincinnati Museum to ship "The Actor" to you immediately in care of Knoedler's. Will you be good enough to let me know when you have received it?

At your suggestion we have asked Mr. McIlhenny to ship the big still life "Pitcher and Bowl of Fruit" to the Cleveland Museum of Art. I understand that you are willing to let us keep this painting for the duration of the tour, the extent of which I have indicated above. It is also my understanding that you have offered as a substitute for "The Actor" for the duration of the tour the large canvas of 1921 which you described to me over the telephone. We should like very much to send this painting to the Cleveland Museum and I should be glad to make arrangements to have it picked up for shipment to our Museum if you will telephone me. The Cleveland exhibition opens on November 7th. Therefore, we ought to make arrangements to ship the painting toward the end of this week.

Dear Mr. Rosenberg:

We are sorry to know that you want to withdraw The Actor from the Picasso exhibition but of course if you insist we have no choice and will have it returned to you at the close of the exhibition in Cincinnati on October 27th.

We are, of course, very much in your debt for your generous loans to the touring exhibition and I want to thank you again. Nevertheless the withdrawal of The Actor greatly weakens the representation of Picasso's early works. Have you or Knoedlers by any chance a Blue picture which we could put in the exhibition?
