Dear Bill,

Unfortunately, I was not able to locate the owner of the Max ERNST painting "Jardin Gobe-Avions" of which Mrs Licht sent me a photostat.

As I have now two photostats of the painting, I will keep trying to find where it is.

I also wanted to say that if you still are looking for somebody to write biographies, I know a person who could do it very well for you. You could write directly to :

Madame Simone LAMBLIN

Very sincerely,

For the Galerie Iolas

Dear Iolas:

~~Dear Brooks:~~

It was good to see you at the gallery and I enjoyed Bill's show very much. I liked particularly the one painting and I hope the drawing I admired has found a good home.

I want to thank you for making to the Museum a special price on the Magritte drawing. I will try to raise funds for it as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

There is one Tinguely drawing I think we should also own. May I speak to you and Brooks at the end of February?

My very best.

William S. Lieberman

Dear Brooks:

I've just returned from Tokyo, and I am very sorry to have missed Dorothea as well as her exhibition.

I hope the Tinguely show is still on as I want very much to see it.

Sincerely,

William S. Lieberman
